

Circle Talk Hosts...

- ◆ Invite neighbors, work associates and other community members to a Circle Talk.
- ◆ Mail or hand out invitations.
- ◆ Provide a place with comfortable seating.
- ◆ Provide light refreshments.

Circle Talk Participants...

- ◆ Share fears and concerns.
- ◆ Share successes.
- ◆ Discuss issues.
- ◆ Brainstorm ways to change your community.
- ◆ Come up with action ideas to make a difference and address the problems.

Thirteen local people have been trained to facilitate a Circle Talk at your home, church, school or place of business. There is no cost. Circle Talks last about an hour and a half.

Circle Talks bring people together to discuss local teen issues, support each other, and most of all to empower people to make a difference in the lives of their loved ones and others in their community.

Circle Talk Facilitators...

- ◆ Lead the discussion.
- ◆ Make connections
- ◆ Share information and raise awareness.
- ◆ Bring brochures, pamphlets, etc. for parents and concerned community members.
- ◆ Link adults and teens to community resources.
- ◆ Stimulate ideas to improve the health of your community.

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has."

"We are now at a point where we must educate our children (and ourselves) in what no one knew yesterday..."

"The solution to adults problems tomorrow depends on large measure upon how our children grow up today."
